Press release | Geneva, 10 February 2017

SENIOR EXECUTIVE JOINS SARTUS CAPITAL

Andrea Atrib, a seasoned specialist in Latam markets joins Sartus Capital from J. P. Morgan. With this hire, Sartus Capital bolsters its expansion in Switzerland. Andrea joins Sartus as a Managing Director.

Felipe de Almeida e Silva, CEO of Sartus Capital commented: «We are delighted to welcome Andrea and her team to Sartus Capital. Her senior expertise and our dynamism, flexibility and solidity enable us to offer our clients outstanding quality of service, thanks to our extensive international network.»

This recruitment aims to further deepen a strong Brazilian client base. It precedes upcoming hires which will enable Sartus Capital to develop its Latin American clientele, as well as its broader international and Swiss client base.

Felipe de Almeida e Silva, CEO of Sartus Capital added: «As a Swiss company with a global reach, we want to continue our development through more senior executive hires and strengthen our close partnership with all the active players in Geneva's financial center».

Biography

Andrea Atrib graduated in Economics at PUC Sao Paulo and completed an MBA in Finance at IBMEC Sao Paulo. She has over 23 years of experience in financial markets, 10 years in Investment Banking and 13 years in Private Banking. Andrea has lived in Geneva for 11 years, where she has worked as a Senior Banker at UBS, Morgan Stanley and J.P. Morgan covering high and ultra-high net worth private clients.
